About

Alex Pia is an Associate in the Litigation Group and concentrates his practice on real estate, construction, and complex landlord-tenant disputes. He represents developers, contractors, property owners, management companies, brokers, condo/co-op boards, commercial tenants, and high-net-worth individuals.

Mr. Pia is approved by New York's Part 36 (Fiduciary Appointments) for appointment as counsel to receivers of distressed properties and in foreclosure proceedings.

Mr. Pia also has experience in appellate litigation, having contributed to arguments before the appellate divisions and the Court of Appeals.

While attending Brooklyn Law School, Mr. Pia served as an editor of the Brooklyn Law Review, interned for the Hon. Katherine Levine of the Kings County Supreme Court, and was a Sparer Fellow with the Brooklyn Defenders' criminal law practice.

Mr. Pia is a member of the New York City Bar Association's Construction Law Committee.
